

Basic Mediation Training in Family & Civil Conflicts

Lynn MacBeth, J.D.

Lynn MacBeth's 40-hour basic mediation training has consistently been approved by the Association for Conflict Resolution's Academy of Family Mediators for 15 years. She presents the course in Pittsburgh and throughout Pennsylvania. The course meets training requirements for most mediation programs as well as Pa. R.C.P. 1940.4 and is approved for 36 hours Pa CLE credit, including 2 hours of ethics.

Trainees will receive copy of Lynn MacBeth's 2014 book The Art of Family Mediation: Theory and Practice (2nd Ed.). The training provides a foundation for all types of mediation. For more information, visit www.mediate.com/macbeth or contact Lynn MacBeth at LynnMacBeth@yahoo.com or 412-303-2505.

Upcoming Training: October 18, 19 and November 1, 2, and 3, 2018 – 9 am to 5:30 pm. Downtown Pittsburgh

Here is what trainees are saying about the training:

"Excellent all around. Never bored once. Extremely knowledgeable on subject matter and beyond."

"Beyond expectations! The case studies were great to synthesize material. The passion Lynn has for this work is clearly demonstrated and was such a pleasure to learn from her expertise."

"I attend a lot of conferences. This was by far the most interesting and best presentation ever!"

"Very enjoyable and very informative. A wonderful learning atmosphere."

"Patient with beginners."

"I now feel as if I can truly mediate."

"Lynn was engaging and kept our interest. She did a great job of introducing mediation concepts and helping us all apply our newly learned skills in a safe and encouraging environment."

"Very eye-opening to those who don't directly work with children."
