BENEFITS

Full-time Official Court Reporters are eligible for a full range of benefits to include retirement, health and life insurance, flexible benefits, long-term care insurance, paid holidays, and annual and sick leave accrual. Additional benefit information is available at <http://www.uscourts.gov/careers/benefits>.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

Each applicant must be a U.S. Citizen or seeking citizenship if applicable criteria are met. Applicants selected for interviews must travel at their own expense. Travel and moving expenses are not authorized for reimbursement. This position is subject to mandatory electronic fund transfer (direct deposit) participation for payment of net earnings.

Official court reporters are placed on a regular tour of duty that requires their presence in the courthouse during core working hours of a minimum of eighty (80) hours per pay period. This position is classified as a sensitive position which requires the selected candidate to submit to a background clearance, which will include a criminal history, credit and FBI fingerprint check as a condition of employment and may be subject to periodic updates.

The selected candidate will be hired provisionally pending the successful completion of the required background check and favorable employment suitability determination. A negative finding from the background check may result in termination of employment. All information provided by applicants is subject to verification. Applicants are advised that false statements or omission(s) of information on any application materials may be grounds for non-selection, withdrawal of an offer of employment or dismissal after being employed.

Employees of the U.S. District Court are excepted service appointments, are considered “at will” and can be terminated with or without cause. The selected candidate will be subject to a probationary term for a period of six months. Employees are required to adhere to a Code of Conduct of Judicial Employees, which is available to candidates for review at:

<http://www.uscourts.gov/rules-policies/judiciary-policies/code-conduct/code-conduct-judicial-employees>

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

The Court reserves the right to modify the conditions of this job announcement or to withdraw the announcement, which may occur without prior written or other notice. In the event a position becomes vacant in a similar classification within a reasonable time of the original announcement, the court may elect to select a candidate from the applicants who responded to the original announcement without re-posting the position.

HOW TO APPLY AND APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

Consideration will only be given to those who apply online through the court’s online application tracking system and provide the required application documents listed below no later than January 15, 2019.
