B. Scope of Rules. These rules shall apply in all proceedings in civil and miscellaneous ~~and criminal~~ actions.

C. Relationship to Prior Rules; Actions Pending on Effective Date. These rules supersede all previous rules promulgated by this Court or any Judge of this Court. They shall govern all applicable proceedings brought in this Court after they take effect. They also shall apply to all proceedings pending at the time they take effect, except to the extent that in the opinion of the Court Judge presiding over a pending proceeding, the application of the amendment to that proceeding ~~thereof~~ would not be feasible or would work injustice, in which event the former rules shall govern.

D. Rule of Construction and Definitions. United States Code, Title 1, Sections 1 to 5, shall, as far as applicable, govern the construction of these rules. Unless the context indicates otherwise, the word "Judge" refers to both District Judges and Magistrate Judges.

LCvR 5.1

GENERAL FORMAT OF DOCUMENTS ~~PAPERS PRESENTED~~ FOR FILING

A. Documents shall be presented for filing on 8.5 x 11 paper that is white for scanning purposes. Documents must be neatly written or typed in at least 12-point font and be double spaced, or equivalent, except quotations more than two lines long, headings, and footnotes may be single spaced. Text may appear on one side of the page only. Pages must be numbered but no other text may appear in the margins of the document, except page numbers. Paper documents presented for filing may only be fastened with a paper clip, binder clip or rubber band. Other fasteners are prohibited.

B. Documents must be filed in English or be accompanied by a certified translation obtained by the party filing the document.

~~A. Filing and Paper Size. In order that the files in the Clerk of Court's office may be kept under the system commonly known as "flat filing," all papers presented to the Court or to the Clerk of Court for filing shall be flat and as thin as feasible. Further, all pleadings and other documents presented for filing to the Court or to the Clerk of Court shall be on 8½ by 11 inch size paper, white in color for scanning purposes and electronic case filing ("ECF").~~

~~B. Lettering. The lettering or typeface shall be clearly legible and shall not be smaller than 12-point word processing font or, if typewritten, shall not be smaller than pica. The text must be double spaced, but quotations more than two lines long may be indented and single spaced. Headings and footnotes may be single spaced. The font type and size used in footnotes shall be the same as that used in the body of the brief. Margins must be at least one inch on all four sides. Page numbers may be placed in the margins, but no text may appear there.~~

~~C. Printing on One Side. The lettering or typeface shall be on only one (1) side of a page.~~

~~D. Page Fasteners. All papers and other documents filed in this Court shall be securely fastened with a paper clip, binder clip, or rubber band. The use of plastic strips, staples, or other such fasteners is prohibited, with the exception that~~

~~administrative and judicial records may be firmly bound.~~

C. E. Exhibits to Briefs. Filers are required to follow all published procedures for the electronic filing of briefs and exhibits. When presented to the Clerk of Court for filing, paper copies must adhere to the same requirements, where applicable. Exhibits to briefs shall be identified by letter or number on a separator page or in the upper right-hand corner of the exhibit. If more than one exhibit is attached to a brief, a table of contents shall be included.

~~Exhibits to a brief or motion shall accompany the brief or motion, but shall not be attached to or bound with the brief or motion. Exhibits shall be secured separately, using either lettered or numbered separator pages to separate and identify each exhibit. Each exhibit also shall be identified by letter or number on the top right hand corner of the first page of the exhibit. Exhibits in support of a pleading or other paper shall accompany the pleading or other paper but shall not be physically bound thereto. In all instances where more than one exhibit is part of the same filing, there shall be a table of contents for the exhibits.~~

D.F. Separate Documents. Each motion and each brief shall be a separate document.

E.G. Exceptions on Motion. Exceptions to the provisions of this rule may be made only upon motion and for good cause. ~~or in the case of papers filed in litigation commenced in forma pauperis~~

H. Withdrawal of Files. ~~Records and papers on file in the office of the Clerk of Court may be produced pursuant to a subpoena from any federal or state Court, directing their production. Records and papers may be removed from the files only upon order of Court. Whenever records and papers are withdrawn, the person receiving them shall leave with the Clerk of Court a signed receipt describing the records or papers taken.~~

F. I. Exhibits. All exhibits received in evidence, or offered and rejected, upon the hearing of any cause or motion, shall be presented to the deputy clerk, who shall keep the same in custody, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, except that the clerk may without special order permit an official court reporter to withdraw exhibits, by means of a signed descriptive receipt, for the purpose of preparing the transcript.

G.J. Law Enforcement Evidence. In all cases where money, firearms, narcotics, controlled substances or any matter of contraband is introduced into evidence, such evidence shall be maintained for safekeeping by law enforcement during all times when court is not in session, and at the conclusion of the case. The law enforcement agent will be responsible for its custody if the evidence is required for any purpose thereafter. See a/so LCrR 23.

H.K. Exhibits Retained by Clerk. Trial exhibits shall be retained by the deputy clerk until it is determined whether an appeal has been taken from a final judgment. In the event of an appeal, exhibits shall be retained by the deputy clerk until disposition of the appeal. Otherwise, they may be reclaimed by counsel for a period of ~~thirty (30)~~ days after which the exhibits may be destroyed by the deputy clerk.

1.L. Hyperlinks. The use of hyperlinks is permitted but is not required. Because a hyperlink contained in a filing is no more than a convenient mechanism for accessing material cited in the document, a hyperlink reference is extraneous to any filed document and does not make the hyperlinked document part of the Court's record. The use of hyperlinks to cited legal authority does not replace standard citation format. Standard citation format must be used in the text of the document.

1. Electronically filed documents may contain:

- ~~a) Hyperlinks to either Westlaw or Lexis/Nexis for cited legal authority, but hyperlinks to a cited authority may not replace standard citation format. Standard citations must be included in the text of the filed document;~~
- ~~b) Hyperlinks to other documents previously filed within the CM/ECF system in the Western District of Pennsylvania or from any other federal court; and~~
- ~~c) Hyperlinks to other portions of the same document.~~

2. Electronically filed documents may not contain in text or footnotes:

- ~~(a) Hyperlinks to sealed or restricted documents;~~
- ~~(b) Hyperlinks to websites not listed in (a); or~~
- ~~(c) Hyperlinks to audio or video files.~~

~~Hyperlinking must comply with the hyperlinking protocol in the Court's Electronic Case Filing Policies and Procedures. Non-conforming documents may be ordered stricken by the Court.~~

Comment (2026)

Because a hyperlink reference is extraneous to any filed document and does not make the hyperlinked document part of the Court's record and because hyperlinks are not static, it is recommended that if a party includes a hyperlink reference to materials in a court filing, the party also convert the referenced material to a PDF document and make it an exhibit or attachment to the filing.

F. Unredacted Version Retained by Court. The sealed unredacted version of the document or the sealed reference list shall be retained by the Court as a part of the record.

G. Counsel and Parties Responsible. The responsibility for redacting these personal identifiers rests solely with counsel and the parties. The Clerk of Court will not review each document for compliance with this rule.

H. Leave of Court Required ~~To~~ File Under Seal. A party wishing to file any document under seal must obtain prior leave of Court for each document that is requested to be filed under seal. A party must file a motion seeking leave to file such documents under seal. Only after obtaining an order of Court granting such a motion will a party be permitted to file a document under seal.

I. Submission to the Court of Audio and/or Video Content. The Court may publish a procedure for the submission to the Court of audio and/or video content. See Administrative Order Regarding Submission to the Court of Audio and/or Video Content available on this Court's website.

LCvR 10 ~~PRO-SE~~ CIVIL RIGHTS ACTIONS FILED BY UNREPRESENTED INCARCERATED INDIVIDUALS

A. Approved Form Required. All ~~pro-se~~ civil rights actions filed in this district by unrepresented incarcerated individuals shall be submitted on the Court approved form supplied by the Clerk of Court. If the plaintiff does not use the Court approved form, the complaint must substantially follow the form's format. Any complaint that does not utilize or substantially follow the form, or does not comply with the requirements set forth herein, may be returned to the unrepresented plaintiff ~~pro-se petitioner~~ with a copy of the ~~e~~Court's standardized form, a statement of reasons for its return, and a directive that the prisoner resubmit the claims outlined in the original filing in compliance with the Court's requirements.

A properly filed complaint must:

1. be submitted on the required form, or substantially follow the format of the required form;
2. identify each defendant in the caption of the complaint; and

C. B. Responsibilities; Service. All unrepresented individuals filing ~~pro se~~ civil rights actions assume responsibilities inherent to litigation. Incarcerated individuals are not relieved of these responsibilities. One important obligation is the service of a properly filed complaint. Failure to comply with the requirements set forth herein may render the service of the complaint impossible and subject the complaint to dismissal for failure to prosecute.

Subject to Court order, to~~To~~ effectuate proper service, a plaintiff must provide:

1. an identical copy of the complaint, including any exhibits and/or attachments, for each named defendant. It is the plaintiff's responsibility, not that of the Clerk of Court or the Court, to submit these copies. If the plaintiff wishes to have the Court make copies of the complaint for him/her then he/she must include with such request the appropriate amount of funds;
2. a completed United States Marshals 285 Form for each and every defendant named in the complaint. Additional copies of this form are available either through the United States Marshal's Office or the Clerk of Court;

E.D. Appeal. The unrepresented pro se plaintiff shall have ~~thirty~~ (30) days to file an appeal with the Third Circuit Court of Appeals from a final decision of the District Court on a dispositive motion. Where it appears that the papers filed by a prisoner show that he had delivered his notice of appeal to the prison authorities within 30 days after the date of judgment from which the appeal is taken, the time for filing the formal notice of appeal shall be extended for a period not to exceed 30 days beyond the time required by Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure.

G.—E. Powers of Consent to Jurisdiction of a Magistrate Judge. ~~Within 21 days of commencement of a pro se civil rights proceeding, the plaintiff shall execute and file a "CONSENT TO JURISDICTION BY UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE" form, either consenting to the jurisdiction of the Magistrate Judge or electing to have the case randomly assigned to a District Judge. Respondent shall execute and file within 21 days of its appearance a form either consenting to the jurisdiction of the Magistrate Judge or electing to have the case randomly assigned to a District Judge. If all parties do not consent to Magistrate Judge jurisdiction, a District Judge shall be assigned and the Magistrate Judge shall continue to manage the case consistent with 28 U.S.C. § 636.~~

~~The "CONSENT TO JURISDICTION BY UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE" form is available on this Court's website (www.pawd.uscourts.gov). If a party elects to have the case assigned to a District Judge, the Magistrate Judge shall continue to manage the case by deciding non-dispositive motions and submitting reports and recommendations on the petition complaint and on dispositive motions, unless otherwise directed by the District Judge.~~

In the event the action is assigned to a Magistrate Judge, no later than 30 days after a responsive pleading is filed by the last responding defendant, or at any other time ordered by the assigned judge, each party shall execute and file a form, indicating whether that party consents to the jurisdiction of the Magistrate Judge to conduct any and all proceedings and order the entry of judgment in the case, 28 U.S.C. § 636(c)(1), which form is available on this Court's website. If all parties do not consent, the Magistrate Judge shall continue to manage the case by deciding non-dispositive motions and submitting reports and recommendations on dispositive motions, unless otherwise directed by the District Judge assigned to the case.

Comment (June 2008)

With regard to LCvR 10.~~DF~~, formerly LCvR 10.D, examples of final judgments are Court orders that: 1) grant a motion to dismiss, or a motion for judgment on the pleadings or a motion for summary judgment AND 2) end all claims against all defendants. If a Court order ends fewer than all claims against all defendants, it generally cannot be appealed to the Third Circuit Court of Appeals until there is a subsequent Court order that ends all of the remaining claims against all of the remaining defendants.

LCvR 16.4 PRETRIAL PROCEDURES

A. Scheduling and Pretrial Conferences -- Generally.

1. There shall be two phases of pretrial scheduling as set forth in LCvR 16.4.B: (1) a discovery phase to be governed by an initial scheduling order; and (2) a post-discovery phase to be governed by a final scheduling order.
2. As soon as practicable but not later than ~~thirty~~ (30) days after the appearance of a defendant, the Court shall enter an order, which may be revised as set forth in LCvR 16.4.A.3 below, setting forth the date and time of an initial scheduling conference and the dates by which the parties shall confer and file the written report required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f), which shall be ~~in the form set forth at "Appendix LCvR 16.1.A" to these Rules and shall be~~ referred to as the Rule 26(f) Report, the form for which is available on this Court's website. Unless the Court finds good cause for delay, the initial scheduling conference shall take place within the earlier of 90 days after any defendant has been served with the complaint or 60 days after any defendant has appeared. The Court may defer the initial scheduling conference if a motion that would dispose of all of the claims within the Court's original jurisdiction is pending.
3. The Court may conduct such further conferences as are consistent with the circumstances of the particular case and this Rule, and may revise any prior scheduling order for good cause.
4. Unrepresented parties are subject to the same obligations as those imposed upon attorneys representing a party. All counsel and unrepresented parties shall have sufficient knowledge of the claim asserted, defenses presented, relief sought, and legal issues fairly raised by the pleadings so as to allow for a meaningful discussion of all such matters at each conference.
5. Upon request or sua sponte, the Court may permit attendance by telephone of counsel or unrepresented parties at any conference.

Comment (2016)

Regarding LCvR 16.4.C.1 and LCvR 16.4.C.6, courts that have dealt with the issue have split on whether depositions of witnesses for use at trial may be taken after the passing of the discovery deadline. Compare RLS Assocs., LLC v. United Bank of Kuwait PLC, 2005 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 3815, 66 Fed. R. Evid. Serv. (CBC) 924 (S.D.N.Y. Mar. 9, 2005) and Estenfelder v. Gates Corp., 199 F.R.D. 351 (D. Colo. 2001) with Crawford v. United States, No. 11-cv-666- JED-PJC, 2013 WL 249360 at 4 (N.D. Okla, Jan 23, 2013) and Integra Lifesciences I, Ltd. v. Merck KgaA, 190

F.R.D. 556, 1999 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 21170 (S.D. Cal. 1999). As a general matter, (1) a party should not have to depose its own witnesses during discovery, (2) should not have to spend the money to take for-trial depositions until it became likely that a trial would actually occur, and (3) litigants are entitled to present their relevant and admissible evidence at trial. Accordingly, the Local Rule addresses the issue in the context of the pre-trial conference by requiring the parties and the Court to set a time, after the filing of the pre-trial statements and before trial within which depositions for use at trial may be taken. In addition, assuming the witness was properly disclosed under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26, the Local Rule places the burden on a party opposing the taking of a deposition for use at trial to show good cause why any such deposition should not be permitted.

Comment (2026)

Former LCvR 16.1 has been renumbered to LCvR 16 and new LCvR 16.1 has been added in light of the amendments to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 16.1, effective December 1, 2025, which introduces a new Federal Rule addressing the procedural framework for managing Multidistrict Litigation (MDL).

LCvR 16.1 MULTIDISTRICT LITIGATION

A. Multidistrict Docket Number and Filing Protocol. After the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation orders the transfer of an action to this Court, a multidistrict litigation docket number for the group of actions, as well as an individual docket number for each separate action shall be maintained. All filings relating to two or more actions in the MDL shall be filed only on the multidistrict litigation docket sheet, unless a different protocol is otherwise ordered by the Court. If a filing relates to a single action only, it shall be filed only on the individual action docket sheet, unless a different protocol is otherwise ordered by the Court.

A. No Separate Appearance Required. Counsel who entered an appearance in the transferor court prior to the transfer need not enter a separate appearance before this Court. Counsel who had entered an appearance in the transferor court will continue to receive notices of filings through the Court's electronic case filing system in the individual action after the transfer. In order for counsel to receive notices of filings made on the multidistrict litigation docket sheet, counsel may either enter an appearance on that docket or take other steps to elect electronic notice of filings made on that docket, unless a different protocol is otherwise ordered by the Court.

Comment (2026)

Former LCvR 16.1 has been renumbered to LCvR 16 and new LCvR 16.1 has been added in light of the amendments to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 16.1, effective December 1, 2025, which introduce a new Federal Rule addressing the procedural framework for managing Multidistrict Litigation (MDL) including the potential for the Court to schedule an initial case management conference and, at the Court's discretion, to require parties to meet and submit reports on matters designated by the Court to aid in the management of the MDL proceedings. The contents of former LCvR 100.1 - TRANSFER OF MULTIDISTRICT LITIGATION have been moved to this new LCvR 16.1 and updated. Certain provisions of former LCvR 100.1 have been removed if the subject matter is now covered by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 16.1, effective December 1, 2025, or if they are no longer necessary or obsolete.

LCvR 16.2 ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

A. ~~Effective Date and Application.~~ LCvR 16.2 and the ADR Policies and Procedures described in LCvR 16.2.E shall govern all civil actions ~~as the Board of Judges shall determine, from time to time, commenced on or after June 1, 2006,~~ with the exception of Social Security cases, and cases in which a prisoner is a party, and cases specifically excepted by the Board of Judges in the ADR Policies and Procedures or by order of Court. Cases subject to LCvR 16.2 also remain subject to the other Local Rules of the Court.

B. Purpose. The Court recognizes that full, formal litigation of claims can impose large economic burdens on parties and can delay resolution of disputes for considerable periods. The Court also recognizes that an alternative dispute resolution ("ADR") procedure can improve the quality of justice by improving the parties' understanding of their case and their satisfaction with the process and the result. The Court adopts LCvR 16.2 to make available to litigants a broad range of Court-sponsored ADR processes to provide quicker, less expensive, and potentially more satisfying alternatives to continuing litigation without impairing the quality of justice or the right to trial. The Court offers diverse ADR services to enable parties to pursue the ADR process that promises to deliver the greatest benefits to their particular case. In administering these Local ADR Rules and the ADR program, the Court will take appropriate steps to assure that no referral to ADR results in an unfair or unreasonable economic burden on any party.

C. ADR Options. The Court-sponsored ADR options for cases include:

1. Mediation;
2. Early Neutral Evaluation; and
3. Arbitration.

D. ADR Designation. At the Rule 26(f) "meet and confer" conference, the parties are required to discuss and, if possible, stipulate to an ADR process for that case. The Rule 26(f) written report shall: (1) designate the specific ADR process that the parties have selected; (2) specify the time frame within which the ADR process will be completed; and (3) set forth any other information the parties would like the Court to know regarding their ADR designation. Deadlines for completion of the ADR process are contained in the Court's ADR Policies and Procedures (see LCvR 16.2.E.). A party may include in the Rule 26(f) Report a request for an extension of time to complete ADR or for a postponement of ADR indicating with specificity why a longer time frame or a postponement to a later phase is necessary for a productive ADR process, which the Court may grant for good cause shown. The parties shall use the form provided by the Court. When litigants-the parties have not stipulated to an ADR process before the Scheduling Conference contemplated by LCvR 16.4, the assigned Judge will discuss the ADR options with counsel and unrepresented parties at that conference. If the parties cannot agree on a process before the end of the Scheduling Conference, the Judge will make an appropriate determination and/or selection for the parties.

E. ADR ~~Policies~~Practices and Procedures. The ADR process is governed by the ADR Policies and Procedures, as adopted by the Board of Judges for the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania, which sets forth specific and more detailed information regarding the ADR process, and which can be accessed either on ~~this~~ Court's ~~official~~ website (~~www.pawd.uscourts.gov~~) or ~~at the from the~~ Clerk's ~~Office~~ of Court

LCvR 17.1 MINORS OR INCOMPETENT PERSONS -- COMPROMISE SETTLEMENT, DISCONTINUANCE, AND DISTRIBUTION

A. Court Approval Required. No action to which a minor or incompetent person is a party shall be compromised, settled, discontinued, or dismissed except after approval by the Court pursuant to a petition presented by the guardian of the minor ~~or the natural guardian of the minor~~ or incompetent person, such as the circumstances might require.

B. Contents of Petition. In all such cases, the minor or incompetent person's attorney shall file with the Clerk of Court, as part of the record, a petition containing: (1) a statement of the nature of the evidence relied on to show liability; (2) the elements of damage; (3) a statement of the services rendered by counsel; (4) the expenses incurred or to be incurred; and (5) the amount of fees requested. ~~The~~ If required by the Judge, the petition shall contain written statements of ~~the~~ minor's or incompetent person's attending physicians, setting forth the nature of the injuries and the extent of recovery. If required by the Judge, such statements of attending physicians shall be in affidavit form. The petition shall be verified by the affidavit of the minor or incompetent person's counsel. In claims for property damage, the extent of the damage shall be described, and the statement shall be supported by the affidavit of the person who appraised the damage or made the repairs.

C. Contents of Court Order. When a compromise or settlement has been ~~so~~ approved by the Court, or when a judgment has been entered upon a verdict or by agreement, the Court, upon petition by the guardian or any party to the action, shall make an order approving or disapproving any agreement entered into by the guardian for the payment of counsel fees and other expenses out of the fund created by the compromise, settlement, or judgment; or the Court may make such order as it deems proper fixing counsel fees and other proper expenses. The Court shall then order the balance of the fund to be paid to the guardian of the estate of the minor or incompetent person qualified to receive the fund except that if the amount payable to the minor or incompetent person does not exceed the sum of ~~one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00)~~, the Court may order the monies deposited in a federally insured bank or savings and loan in an account to be marked "not to be withdrawn until majority has been attained or upon further order of Court." If the amount of anticipated interest would cause the account to exceed $100,000.00, then the Court may order the deposit to be made in two or more savings institutions. If the minor or incompetent person has no guardian of his or her estate and the balance does not exceed ~~ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00)~~, the Court on its own motion or upon petition of any person entitled to apply for the appointment of a guardian for the minor or incompetent person may authorize the amount of the judgment to be paid to the guardian of the person, the natural guardian, the person by whom the minor or incompetent person is maintained, or the minor or incompetent person.

D. Payment of Funds. When a judgment has been entered in favor of a minor or incompetent person plaintiff and no petition has been filed under the provision of Subparagraph C of this rule, the amount of the judgment shall be paid only to a guardian of the estate of the minor or incompetent person qualified to receive the fund. If the minor or incompetent person has no such guardian and the judgment does not exceed ~~ten thousand dollars~~ ($10,000.00), the Court on its own motion or upon petition of any person entitled to apply for the appointment of a guardian for the minor or incompetent person may authorize the amount of the judgment to be paid to the guardian of the person, the natural guardian, the person by whom the minor or incompetent person is maintained, or the minor or incompetent person.

LCvR 17.2 SETTLEMENT PROCEDURE FOR SEAMAN SUITS

A. Court Approval Required. No suit in admiralty or civil action to which a seaman is a party shall be compromised, settled, discontinued, or amicably or voluntarily dismissed except after approval by the Court pursuant to a petition presented by the seaman's attorney, or the seaman if unrepresented and upon payment to the Clerk of Court of the filing fee.

B. Contents of Petition. In all such cases, the seaman's attorney, or the seaman if unrepresented, shall file with the Clerk of Court, as part of the record, a petition containing:

1. a statement of the essential facts relating to liability;
2. the elements of claimed damage, including a statement of amounts already paid to or on behalf of the seaman;
3. a statement of services rendered by counsel;
4. the expenses incurred or to be incurred by counsel; and

The petition shall also include copies of written statements of those physicians who have treated or examined the seaman setting forth the nature of the injuries and the extent of recovery and a copy of the release, if any, signed or to be signed by the seaman. The petition shall be verified by the seaman's attorney, or the seaman if unrepresented.

C. Seaman to Appear. No such compromise, settlement, discontinuance, or dismissal shall be approved by the Court unless the seaman appears in open Court before the Judge to whom the petition is presented. At such time, the Court shall examine the seaman under oath in order to ensure that the seaman's rights are fully protected and that he or she comprehends the nature of the action being taken by him or her and on his or her behalf before such petition and release shall be approved and order entered thereon.

D. Contents of Court Order. When a compromise or settlement has been so approved by the Court, or when a judgment has been entered on a verdict or by agreement, the Court, upon petition filed by the seaman's counsel, or the seaman if unrepresented shall make an order approving or disapproving ~~the~~ any agreement entered into by the attorney and the seaman for the payment of counsel fees and other expenses out of the fund created by the compromise, settlement, or judgment; or the Court may make such order as it deems proper, fixing counsel fees and other proper expenses. The petition to be filed by counsel for the seaman, or the seaman if unrepresented, in those instances where a judgment has been entered need only contain a statement of those matters referred to in LCvR 17.2.B.1-5. The Court shall then order the balance of the fund to be paid to the seaman unless he or she be a minor or an incompetent person, in which case the Court shall order the balance of the fund to be paid to a guardian of the estate of the seaman qualified to receive the fund.

LCvR 54 COSTS

A. Jury Cost Assessment.

1. Whenever the Court finds, after 14 days' notice and a reasonable opportunity to be heard, that any party or lawyer in any civil case before the Court has acted in bad faith, abused the judicial process, or has failed to exercise reasonable diligence in effecting the settlement of such case at the earliest practicable time, the Court may impose upon such party or lawyer the jury costs, including mileage and per diem, resulting therefrom.
2. The Court shall issue a rule to show cause and conduct a hearing of record to inquire into the facts prior to imposing any sanction.

B. Taxation of Costs.

1. Absent extenuating circumstances, the Clerk of Court will tax costs for a prevailing party only after the time for filing an appeal has expired. Generally, costs will not be taxed while an appeal is pending because of the possibility that the judgment may be reversed. However, if a party believes there is a reason why there should be an immediate taxation in a particular case, that party may make a written request for taxation prior to resolution of the appeal.
2. ~~While there is no strict deadline for filing a bill of costs with the Court, a~~ A bill of costs must be filed ~~within a reasonable period of time, which should be~~ no later than 45 days after a final judgment is entered by the District Court, absent leave of Court to file it within a different time period. ~~However, if~~ If an appeal has been filed, counsel may defer filing a bill of costs until 30 days after the mandate has been filed in the District Court, or after ~~the an~~ appeal has been withdrawn.

LCvR 56 MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

A. Application. The procedures that follow shall govern all motions for summary judgment made in civil actions unless the Court, ~~on its own motion,~~ directs otherwise, based on the particular facts and circumstances of the individual action.

B. Motion Requirements. The motion for summary judgment must set forth succinctly, but without argument, the specific grounds upon which the judgment is sought and must be accompanied by the following:

1. A Concise Statement of Material Facts. A separately filed ~~C~~oncise ~~S~~statement of Material Facts setting forth the facts essential for the Court to decide the motion for summary judgment, which the moving party contends are undisputed and material, including any facts which for purposes of the summary judgment motion only are assumed to be true. The facts set forth in any party's Concise Statement of Material Facts shall be stated in separately numbered paragraphs. A party must cite to a particular pleading, deposition, answer to interrogatory, admission on file, or other part of the record supporting the party's statement, acceptance, or denial of the material fact;

2. A Memorandum in Support. The supporting memorandum must address applicable law and explain why there are no genuine issues of material fact to be tried and why the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law; and

3. An Appendix. Documents referenced in the Concise Statement of Material Facts shall be included in an appendix. Such documents need not be filed in their entirety. Instead, the filing party may extract and highlight the relevant portions of each referenced document. Photocopies of extracted pages, with appropriate identification and highlighting, will be adequate.

C. Opposition Requirements. Within 30 days of service of the motion for summary judgment, the opposing party shall file:

1. A Responsive Concise Statement. A separately filed Responsive Concise Statement, which responds to each numbered paragraph in the moving party's Concise Statement of Material Facts by:

- a. admitting or denying whether each fact contained in the moving party's Concise Statement of Material Facts is undisputed and/or material;
- b. setting forth the basis for the denial if any fact contained in the moving party's Concise Statement of Material Facts is not admitted in its entirety (as to whether it is undisputed or material), with appropriate reference to the record (See LCvR 56.B.1 for instructions regarding format and annotation); and
- c. setting forth in separately numbered paragraphs any other material facts that are allegedly at issue, and/or that the opposing party asserts are necessary for the Court to determine the motion for summary judgment.

The Responsive Concise Statement must restate verbatim the language contained in the moving party's Concise Statement of Material Facts for each numbered paragraph to which it responds to eliminate the need for Judges of the Court to cross reference two documents to determine whether an alleged fact is disputed or undisputed.

If the Responsive Concise Statement includes any additional averments of fact offered by the party filing the Responsive Concise Statement, it should use consecutive numbering for those additional averments of fact that starts with the number immediately after the last number used by the movant. For example, if the last numbered paragraph in the movant's Concise Statement of Material Facts is No. 25, any additional averments of fact in the Responsive Concise Statement should begin at No. 26;

2. A Memorandum in Opposition. The memorandum of law in opposition to the motion for summary judgment must address applicable law and explain why there are genuine issues of material fact to be tried and/or why the moving party is not entitled to judgment as a matter of law; and

3. An Appendix. Documents referenced in the Responsive Concise Statement shall be included in an appendix. (See LCvR 56.B.3 for instructions regarding the appendix).

D. Moving Party's Reply to Opposing Party's Submission. Within 14 days of service of the opposing party's submission in opposition to the motion for summary judgment, the moving party may reply to the opposing party's submission in the same manner as set forth in LCvR 56C.

E. Admission of Material Facts. Alleged material facts set forth in the moving party's Concise Statement of Material Facts or in the opposing party's Responsive Concise Statement, which are claimed to be undisputed, will for the purpose of deciding the motion for summary judgment be deemed admitted unless specifically denied or otherwise controverted by a separate concise statement of the opposing party.

LCvR 83.3 RULES OF DISCIPLINARY ENFORCEMENT FOR ATTORNEYS

A. Introduction.

1. Responsibility of Court. The United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania, in furtherance of its inherent power and responsibility to supervise the conduct of attorneys who are admitted to practice before it, or admitted for the purpose of a particular proceeding (pro hac vice), promulgates the following rules of Disciplinary Enforcement superseding all of its rules pertaining to disciplinary enforcement heretofore promulgated.

2. Adoption of Rules of Professional Conduct. Acts or omissions by an attorney admitted to practice before this Court, individually or in concert with others, that violate the rules of professional conduct adopted by this Court shall constitute misconduct and shall be grounds for discipline, whether or not the act or omission occurred in the course of an attorney-client relationship. The rules of professional conduct adopted by this Court are the rules of professional conduct adopted by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, as amended from time to time, except that Rule 3.10 has been specifically deleted as a rule of this Court, and as otherwise provided by specific order of this Court.

3. Sanctions for Misconduct. For misconduct defined in these rules, any attorney admitted to practice before this Court may be disbarred, suspended from practice before this Court, reprimanded or subjected to such other disciplinary action as the circumstances may warrant.

4. Admission to Practice as Conferring Disciplinary Jurisdiction. Whenever an attorney applies to be admitted or is admitted to this Court for purposes of a particular proceeding (pro hac vice), the attorney shall be deemed thereby to have conferred disciplinary jurisdiction upon this Court for any alleged misconduct of that attorney arising in the course of or in the preparation for such proceeding.

B. Disciplinary Proceeding.

1. Reference to Counsel. When misconduct or allegations of misconduct which, if substantiated, would warrant discipline on the part of an attorney admitted to practice before this Court shall come to the attention of a District Judge or Magistrate Judge of this Court, whether by complaint or otherwise, and the applicable procedure is not otherwise mandated by these rules, or in the event a petition for reinstatement has been filed by a disciplined attorney, the Chief Judge shall in his or her discretion and with prior agreement of the Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania appoint as counsel attorneys serving in the Office of Disciplinary Counsel of the Disciplinary Board or one or more members of the bar of this Court to investigate allegations of misconduct or to prosecute disciplinary proceedings under these rules or in conjunction with such a reinstatement petition, provided, however, that the respondent-attorney may move to disqualify an attorney so appointed who is or has been engaged as an adversary of the respondent-attorney in any matter. Counsel, once appointed, may not resign unless permission to do so is given by this Court.

2. Recommendation of Counsel. Should such counsel conclude after investigation and review that a formal disciplinary proceeding should not be initiated against the respondent-attorney because sufficient evidence is not present, or because there is pending another proceeding against the respondent-attorney, the disposition of which in the judgment of the counsel should be awaited before further action by this Court is considered or for any other valid reason, counsel shall file with this Court a recommendation for disposition of the matter, whether by dismissal, admonition, deferral, or otherwise setting forth the reasons therefor.

3. Order to Show Cause. Should such counsel conclude after investigation and review that a formal disciplinary proceeding should be initiated, counsel shall obtain an order of this Court upon a showing of probable cause requiring the respondent-attorney to show cause within ~~thirty~~ (30) days after service of that order upon that attorney, personally or by mail, why the attorney should not be disciplined.

4. Hearings. Upon the respondent-attorney's answer to the order to show cause, if any issue of fact is raised or the respondent-attorney wishes to be heard in mitigation, the Chief Judge shall set the matter for prompt hearing before one or more Judges of this Court, provided, however, that if the disciplinary proceeding is predicated upon the complaint of a Judge of this Court the hearing shall be conducted before a panel of three other Judges of this Court appointed by the Chief Judge, or if there are fewer than three Judges eligible to serve or the Chief Judge is the complainant, by the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals. Where a Judge merely refers a matter and is not involved in the proceeding, he or she shall not be considered a complainant.

All such proceedings shall be conducted by counsel appointed pursuant to LCvR 83.3.B.1 or such other counsel as the Court may appoint for such purpose.

The Judge or Judges to whom a disciplinary proceeding is assigned by the Chief Judge may conduct a further hearing, and/or otherwise take additional testimony, or hear or receive oral or written argument, and shall make a recommendation based thereon to the Board of Judges. The Board, after consideration of the recommendation, shall enter such order as it shall determine by a majority vote of the active Judges in service at the next meeting of the board to be appropriate, including dismissal of the charges, reprimand, suspension for a period of time, disbarment, or such action as may be proper.

C. Attorneys Convicted of Crimes.

1. Immediate Suspension. Upon the filing with this Court of a certified copy of a judgment of conviction demonstrating that any attorney admitted to practice before this Court has been convicted in any Court of the United States, or the District of Columbia, or of any state, territory, commonwealth or possession of the United States, of a serious crime as hereinafter defined, the Chief Judge shall enter an order immediately suspending that attorney, whether the conviction resulted from a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or from a verdict after trial or otherwise, and regardless of the pendency of any appeal, until final disposition of a disciplinary proceeding to be commenced upon such conviction. A copy of such order shall immediately be served upon the attorney. Upon good cause shown, the Chief Judge may set aside such order when it appears in the interest of justice so to do upon concurrence of a majority of active Judges in service.

2. Definition of Serious Crime. The term "serious crime" shall include any felony and any lesser crime a necessary element of which, as determined by the statutory or common law definition of such crime in the jurisdiction where the judgment was entered, involves false swearing, misrepresentation, fraud, willful failure to file income tax returns, deceit, bribery, extortion, misappropriation, theft, or an attempt or a conspiracy or solicitation of another to commit a "serious crime."

3. Certified Copy of Conviction as Evidence. A certified copy of a judgment of conviction of an attorney for any crime shall be conclusive evidence of the commission of that crime in any disciplinary proceeding instituted against that attorney based upon the conviction.

4. Mandatory Reference for Disciplinary Proceeding. Upon the filing of a certified copy of a judgment of conviction of an attorney for a serious crime, the Court shall refer the matter for the institution of a disciplinary proceeding in which the sole issue to be determined shall be the extent of the final discipline to be imposed as a result of the conduct resulting in the conviction, provided that a disciplinary proceeding so instituted will not be brought to final hearing until all appeals from the conviction are concluded.

5. Discretionary Reference for Disciplinary Proceedings. Upon the filing of a certified copy of a judgment of conviction of an attorney for a crime not constituting a serious crime, the Court may refer the matter to counsel for whatever action counsel may deem warranted, including the institution of a disciplinary proceeding provided, however, that the Court may in its discretion make no reference with respect to convictions for minor offenses.

6. Reinstatement Upon Reversal. An attorney suspended under the provisions of this rule will be reinstated immediately upon the filing of a certificate demonstrating that the underlying conviction of a serious crime has been reversed but the reinstatement will not terminate any disciplinary proceeding then pending against the attorney, the disposition of which shall be determined by the Court on the basis of all available evidence pertaining to both guilt and the extent of discipline to be imposed.

D. Discipline Imposed by Other Courts.

1. Notice by Attorney of Public Discipline. Any attorney admitted to practice before this Court shall, upon being subjected to public discipline by any other Court of the United States or the District of Columbia, or by a Court of any state, territory, commonwealth or possession of the United States, promptly inform the Clerk of this Court of such action.

2. Proceedings after Notice of Discipline. Upon the filing of a certified or exemplified copy of a judgment or order demonstrating that an attorney admitted to practice before this Court has been disciplined by another Court, this Court shall forthwith issue a notice directed to the attorney containing:

- a. A copy of the judgment or order from the other Court; and

b. An order to show cause directing that the attorney inform this Court within thirty (30) days after service of that order upon the attorney, personally or by mail, of any claim by the attorney predicated upon the grounds set forth in LCvR 83.3.D.4 that the imposition of the identical discipline by the Court would be unwarranted and the reasons therefor.

3. Stay of Discipline in Other Jurisdiction. In the event the discipline imposed in the other jurisdiction has been stayed there, any reciprocal discipline imposed in this Court shall be deferred until such stay expires.

4. Reciprocal Discipline. Upon the expiration of thirty (30) days from service of the notice issued pursuant to the provisions of LCvR 83.3.D.2, this Court shall impose the identical discipline unless the respondent-attorney demonstrates, or this Court finds, that upon the face of the record upon which the discipline in another jurisdiction is predicated it clearly appears that:

- a. the procedure was so lacking in notice or opportunity to be heard as to constitute a deprivation of due process;
- b. there was such an infirmity of proof establishing the misconduct as to give rise to the clear conviction that this Court could not, consistent with its duty, accept as final the conclusion on that subject;
- c. the imposition of the same discipline by this Court would result in grave injustice; or
- d. the misconduct established is deemed by this Court to warrant substantially different discipline.

In the event that an attorney files a timely answer alleging one or more of the elements set forth in LCvR 83.3.D.4, the Chief Judge shall set the matter for prompt hearing before one or more Judges of this Court who may order and conduct a further hearing, or take testimony or hear argument, and make a recommendation to the Board of Judges. The Board, after consideration of the recommendation, shall enter such order, as it shall determine by a majority vote of the active Judges in service at the next meeting of the Board, including dismissal of the charges, reprimand, suspension for a period of time, disbarment, or such action as may be proper.

5. Conclusive Evidence of Final Adjudication. In all other respects, a final adjudication in another Court that an attorney has been guilty of misconduct shall establish conclusively the misconduct for the purposes of a disciplinary proceeding in this Court.

6. Appointment of Counsel. This Court may at any stage appoint counsel to prosecute the disciplinary proceedings, pursuant to LCvR 83.3.B.I.

E. Disbarment on Consent or Resignation.

1. Automatic Cessation of Right to Practice. Any attorney admitted to practice before this Court who shall be disbarred on consent or resign from the bar of any other Court of the United States or the District of Columbia, or from the bar of any state, territory, commonwealth or possession of the United States, while an investigation into allegations of misconduct is pending, shall, upon the filing with this Court of a certified or exemplified copy of the judgment or order accepting such disbarment on consent or resignation, cease to be permitted to practice before this Court and be stricken from the roll of attorneys admitted to practice before this Court.

2. Attorney to Notify Clerk of Disbarment. Any attorney admitted to practice before this Court shall, upon being disbarred on consent or resigning from the bar of any other Court of the United States or the District of Columbia, or from the bar of any state, territory, commonwealth or possession of the United States, promptly inform the Clerk of this Court of such disbarment on consent or resignation.

F. Disbarment on Consent While under Disciplinary Investigation or Prosecution.

1. Consent to Disbarment. Any attorney admitted to practice before this Court who is the subject of an investigation into, or a pending proceeding involving, allegations of misconduct may consent to disbarment, but only by delivering to this Court an affidavit stating that the attorney desires to consent to disbarment and that:

- a. the attorney's consent is freely and voluntarily rendered; the attorney is not being subjected to coercion or duress; the attorney is fully aware of the implications of so consenting;
- b. the attorney is aware that there is presently pending investigation or proceeding involving allegations that there exist grounds for the attorney's discipline, the nature of which the attorney shall specifically set forth;
- c. the attorney acknowledges that the material facts so alleged are true; and
- d. the attorney so consents because the attorney knows that if charges were predicated upon the matters under investigation, or if the proceeding were prosecuted, the attorney could not successfully defend himself or herself.

2. Consent Order. Upon receipt of the required affidavit, this Court shall enter an order disbarring the attorney.

3. Public Record. The ~~o~~Order disbarring the attorney on consent shall be a matter of public record. However, the affidavit required under the provisions of this rule shall not be publicly disclosed or made available for use in any other proceeding except upon order of this Court.

G. Reinstatement.

1. After Disbarment or Suspension. An attorney suspended for three (3) months or less shall be automatically reinstated at the end of the period of suspension upon the filing with the Court of an affidavit of compliance with the provisions of the order. An attorney suspended for more than three (3) months or disbarred may not resume practice until reinstated by order of this Court.

2. Time of Application Following Disbarment. A person who has been disbarred after hearing or by consent may not apply for reinstatement until the expiration of at least five (5) years from the effective date of this disbarment.

3. Hearing on Application. Petitions for reinstatement by a disbarred or suspended attorney under this rule shall be filed with the Chief Judge of this Court. Upon receipt of the petition, the Chief Judge shall refer the petition to counsel for investigation and recommendation, and shall assign the matter for a hearing, or other appropriate action, before one or more Judges of this Court, provided, however, that if the disciplinary proceeding was predicated upon the complaint of a Judge of this Court, the hearing shall be conducted before a panel of three (3) other Judges of this Court appointed by the Chief Judge, or, if there are fewer than three (3) Judges eligible to serve or the Chief Judge was the complainant, by the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals. The Judge or Judges assigned to the matter shall schedule a hearing, if necessary, at which the petitioner shall have the burden of demonstrating by clear and convincing evidence that he or she has the moral qualifications, competency and learning in the law required for admission to practice law before this Court and that his or her resumption of the practice of law will not be detrimental to the integrity and standing of the bar or to the administration of justice, or subversive of the public interest.

The Judge or Judges shall make a recommendation to the Board of Judges and the Board shall enter an appropriate order, as determined by a majority vote of the active Judges in service at the next meeting of the Board.

4. Duty of Counsel. In all proceedings upon a petition for reinstatement, cross-examination of the witnesses of the respondent-attorney and the submission of evidence, if any, in opposition to the petition shall be conducted by counsel.

5. Deposit for Costs of Proceeding. Petitions for reinstatement under this rule shall be accompanied by an advance cost deposit in an amount to be set from time to time by the Court to cover anticipated costs of the reinstatement proceeding.

6. Conditions of Reinstatement. If the petitioner is found unfit to resume the practice of law, the petition shall be dismissed. If the petitioner is found fit to resume the practice of law, the judgment shall reinstate him or her, provided that the judgment may make reinstatement conditional upon the payment of all or part of the costs of the proceedings, and upon the making of partial or complete restitution to parties harmed by the petitioner whose conduct led to the suspension or disbarment. Provided further, that if the petitioner has been suspended or disbarred for five (5) years or more, reinstatement may be conditioned, in the discretion of the Judge or Judges before whom the matter is heard, upon the furnishing of proof of competency and learning in the law, which proof may include certification by the bar examiners of a state or other jurisdiction of the attorney's successful completion of an examination for admission to practice subsequent to the date of suspension or disbarment.

7. Successive Petitions. No petition for reinstatement under this rule shall be filed within one (1) year following an adverse judgment upon a petition for reinstatement filed by or on behalf of the same person.

H. Service of Papers and Other Notices. Service of an order to show cause instituting a formal disciplinary proceeding or other papers or notices required by these rules shall be made by personal service or by registered or certified mail addressed to the respondent-attorney at the address most recently registered by him or her with the Clerk of Court. Service of any other papers or notices required by these rules shall be deemed to have been made if such paper or notice is addressed to the respondent-attorney at the address most recently registered with the Clerk of Court; or to counsel or respondent's attorney at the address indicated in the most recent pleading or other document filed by them in the course of any proceeding under these rules.

I. Duties of the Clerk of Court.

1. Filing Certificate of Conviction. Upon being informed that an attorney admitted to practice before this Court has been convicted of any crime, the Clerk of this Court shall determine whether the Clerk of the Court in which such conviction occurred has forwarded a certificate of such conviction to this Court. If a certificate has not been so forwarded, the Clerk of this Court shall promptly obtain a certificate and file it with this Court.

2. Filing Disciplinary Judgment. Upon being informed that an attorney admitted to practice before this Court has been subjected to discipline by another Court, the Clerk of this Court shall determine whether a certified or exemplified copy of the disciplinary judgment or order has been filed with this Court, and, if not, the Clerk of Court shall promptly obtain a certified or exemplified copy of the disciplinary judgment or order and file it with this Court.

3. Filing Consent Order. Upon being informed that an attorney admitted to practice before this Court has been disbarred on consent or resigned in another jurisdiction while an investigation into allegations of misconduct was pending, the Clerk of this Court shall determine whether a certified or exemplified copy of the disciplinary judgment or order striking the attorney's name from the rolls of those admitted to practice has been filed with the Court, and, if not, shall promptly obtain a certified or exemplified copy of such judgment or order and file it with the Court.

4. Transmittal of Record to Other Courts. Whenever it appears that any person convicted of any crime or disbarred or suspended or censured or disbarred on consent by this Court is admitted to practice law in any other jurisdiction or before any other court, the Clerk of this Court shall, within fourteen (14) days of that conviction, disbarment, suspension, censure, or disbarment on consent, transmit to the disciplinary authority in such other jurisdiction, or for such other court, a certificate of the conviction or a certified or exemplified copy of the judgment or order of disbarment, suspension, censure, or disbarment on consent, as well as the last known office and residence addresses of the defendant or respondent.

5. National Discipline Data Bank. The Clerk of Court shall promptly notify the National Discipline Data Bank operated by the American Bar Association of any order imposing public discipline upon any attorney admitted to practice before this Court.

J. Retention of Control. Nothing contained in these rules shall be construed to deny to this Court such powers as are necessary for the Court to maintain control over proceedings conducted before it, such as proceedings for contempt under Title 18 of the United States Code or under Fed. R. Crim. P. 42.

K. Confidentiality. All investigations of allegations of misconduct, and disciplinary proceedings authorized by these rules shall be kept confidential until or unless:

1. the Judge or Judges to whom the matter is assigned determine otherwise;
2. the respondent-attorney requests in writing that the matter be public;
3. the investigation or proceeding is predicated on a conviction of the respondent-attorney for a crime; or
4. the Court determines that discipline is appropriate in accordance with LCvR 83.3.B.4.

This rule shall not prohibit counsel, appointed pursuant to LCvR 83.3.B.1 or any member of this Court, from reporting to law enforcement authorities the suspected commission of any criminal offense.

Comment (June 2008)

The amended Rule adds headings, modifies the numbering and clarifies and modernizes language in the Rule. The amendment reorganizes the Rule and clarifies the process whereby allegations of attorney misconduct are investigated and, if appropriate, prosecuted. The amended Rule clarifies that the word "Counsel" refers to a member of the bar of the Court appointed by the Chief Judge to perform the investigation and/or prosecution.

Appendix FORM FOR LCvR 16.4.D(2) and 26.2E

Order Implementing Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d)

1. No Waiver by Disclosure. This Order is entered pursuant to Rule 502(d) of the Federal Rules of Evidence. Subject to the provisions of this Order, if a party (the “Producing Party”) discloses information in connection with the pending litigation, that the Producing Party thereafter claims to be protected by the attorney-client privilege and/or trial preparation material protection (“Protected Information”), the disclosure of that Protected Information will not constitute or be deemed a waiver or forfeiture—in this or any other federal, state, arbitration, or any other proceeding—of any claim of privilege or protection as trial preparation material that the Producing Party would otherwise be entitled to assert with respect to the Protected Information and its subject matter.

2. Notification Requirements; Best Efforts of Receiving Party. A Producing Party must promptly notify the party receiving the Protected Information (the “Receiving Party”), in writing that it has disclosed the Protected Information without intending a waiver by the disclosure. The notification by the Producing Party shall include as specific an explanation as possible why the Protected Information is covered by the attorney-client privilege and/or constitutes trial preparation material. Upon such notification, the Receiving Party must—unless it contests the claim of attorney-client privilege or protection as trial preparation material in accordance with paragraph (3)—promptly (a) notify the Producing Party that it will make best efforts to identify and return, sequester or destroy (or in the case of electronically stored information, delete) the Protected Information and any reasonably accessible copies it has and (b) provide a certification that it will cease further review, dissemination and use of the Protected Information. [For purposes of this Order, Protected Information that has been stored on a source of electronically stored information that is not reasonably accessible, such as backup storage media, is sequestered. If such data is retrieved, the Receiving Party must promptly take steps to delete or sequester the restored Protected Information.]

3. Contesting Claims of Privilege or Protection as Trial Preparation Material. If the Receiving Party contests the claim of attorney-client privilege or protection as trial preparation material, the Receiving Party must—within 30 days of receipt of the notification referenced in Paragraph (2)—move the Court for an Order finding that the material referenced in the notification does not constitute Protected Information. This Motion must be filed (with Court approval) under seal and cannot assert the fact or circumstance of the disclosure as a ground for determining that the material does not constitute Protected Information. Pending resolution of the Motion, the Receiving Party must not use the challenged information in any way or disclose it to any person other than as required by law to be served with a copy of the sealed Motion.

4. Stipulated Time Periods. The parties may stipulate to extend the time periods set forth in subparagraphs (2) and (3).

5. Burden of Proving Privilege or Protection as Trial Preparation Material. The Disclosing Party retains the burden – upon challenge pursuant to Paragraph (3) – of establishing the privileged or protected nature of the Protected Information.

6. In Camera* Review. Nothing in this Order limits the right of any party to petition the Court for an in camera review of the Protected Information.

7. Voluntary and Subject Matter Waiver. This Order does not preclude a party from voluntarily waiving the attorney-client privilege or trial preparation material protection. The provisions of Federal Rule of Evidence 502(a) apply when the Disclosing Party uses or indicates that it may use information produced under this Order to support a claim or defense.

8. Rule 502(b)(2). The failure to take reasonable steps to prevent the disclosure shall not give rise to a waiver of the privilege.

9. Other Clawback and Confidentiality Obligations. This Order does not affect or rescind any Clawback Agreement or Order governing protection of confidential information to which the parties have otherwise agreed.

10. Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provisions of this Order shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Order, which shall remain in full force and effect.

Note

The Court has adopted this Model Order to implement fully the protections of Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) if the parties believe a Rule 502(d) order is in the best interests of their clients. The fact that the parties enter into a Rule 502(d) order to streamline discovery and avoid privilege waiver, however, does not affect in any way their right to review documents, ESI, and information before production.

The parties are free to opt against requesting a Rule 502(d) order, to request that Court not enter such an Order, or to request that the court enter a modified version of the Model Order. For example, the parties could narrow the scope of their 502(d) order by limiting it to a certain universe of documents, permitting privilege waiver if the producing party did so intentionally or did not take reasonable steps to prevent disclosure, or applying privilege waiver to the documents produced but not to other documents governing the same subject matter. The parties could also expand the protection against waiver to privileges other than the attorney-client privilege or as to trial preparation material. The Court takes no position on the advisability of a Rule 502(d) order in a particular case.

APPENDIX FORM FOR LCvR 26.2.E-MODEL ORDERUNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

Plaintiff(s),

Defendant(s).

Case Number: C xx-xxxx

MODEL STIPULATED ORDER
RE: DISCOVERY OF
ELECTRONICALLY STORED
INFORMATION FOR STANDARD
LITIGATION1. PURPOSE

This Order will govern discovery of electronically stored information ("ESI") (including scanned hard-copy documents) in this case as a supplement to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this Court's Guidelines for the Discovery of Electronically Stored Information, and any other applicable orders and rules.

2. COOPERATION

The parties are aware of the importance the Court places on cooperation and commit to cooperate in good faith throughout the matter consistent with this Court's Guidelines for the Discovery of ESI.

3. RESOURCE PERSON

The parties have identified to each other the resource persons who are and will be knowledgeable about and responsible for discussing their respective ESI. Each ESI resource person will be, or have access to those who are, knowledgeable about the technical aspects of ESI, including the location, nature, accessibility, format, collection, search methodologies, and production of ESI in this matter. The parties will rely on the resource persons, as needed, to confer about ESI and to help resolve disputes without court intervention. The resource person is not necessarily the person who would be designated to testify related to a person or entity's preservation efforts, document retention policies, collection efforts, or other related matters.

4. PRESERVATION

The parties have discussed their preservation obligations and needs and agree that preservation of potentially relevant ESI (e.g., email, text ESI, voicemail, spreadsheets, databases, etc.) will be reasonable and proportionate. To reduce the costs and burdens of preservation and to ensure proper ESI is preserved, the parties agree that:

- a) Only ESI accessed, modified, created or received between [the dates] _____ and _____ relating to the above-captioned matter will be preserved¹;
- b) Based upon their investigation to date, the parties have exchanged a list of the types of ESI they believe should be preserved and the custodians, or general job titles or descriptions of custodians, for whom they believe ESI should be preserved. The parties shall add or remove custodians as reasonably necessary;
- c) The parties have agreed/will agree on the number of custodians per party for whom ESI will be preserved;
- d) The following data sources are not reasonably accessible, and the parties agree not to preserve the following: [e.g., backup media created before _____, ESI in foreign jurisdictions, data in slack space, digital voicemail, instant messaging, automatically saved versions of ESI];
- e) The following data sources will be preserved but not searched, reviewed, or produced: [e.g., backup media of [named] system, systems no longer in use that cannot be accessed, etc.];
- f) In addition to the agreements above, the parties agree that data from the following sources (a) could contain relevant information but (b) under the proportionality factors, should not be preserved: [the following databases that by their nature change as new information is added to them, accessed and modified dates, etc.]: _____;
- g) In terms of preservation, the parties agree/disagree that there is no need for forensic images of servers, databases, computers, cell phones, etc. [except for the following data sources: _____]²

¹ The parties may estimate or agree to the volume of data to be produced (i.e., number of documents, files, or GB of data).

5. SEARCH AND IDENTIFICATION

The parties agree that in responding to an initial Fed. R. Civ. P. 34 request, or earlier if appropriate, they will meet and confer about methods to search ESI in order to identify ESI that is subject to production in discovery and filter out ESI that is likely not subject to discovery. The parties are permitted to use reasonable search methods to narrow down the ESI to be reviewed for production in discovery (e.g., search terms, technology assisted review, deduplication, elimination of correspondence with attorneys, client self-collection efforts, etc.); however, the parties must be prepared to discuss the reasonableness of such efforts.

6. PRODUCTION FORMATS

The parties agree to produce ESI in (check all that apply) TIFF, native, PDF, and/or paper or a combination thereof (check all that apply) file formats.³ If particular ESI warrants a different format, the parties will cooperate to arrange for the mutually acceptable production of such ESI.⁴ The parties agree not to degrade the searchability of ESI as part of the document production process, and have discussed the necessary level of resolution to permit the effective use of produced ESI. Additionally, the parties agree to discuss appropriate load files, if any.

² To the extent the parties disagree, cost-shifting may occur to the extent a party is required to expend resources on imaging which the Court determines to be unnecessary or not proportional.

³ To the extent production is not in native format, the parties should consider agreement on metadata fields to be produced.

⁴ By way of example, the parties could agree to produce excel ESI in native format while providing other ESI in TIFF format with conventional production numbering (PI 00001) and load files.

7. PHASING

When the parties require some discovery prior to ADR/mediation, the parties agree to phase the production of ESI. The initial production will be from the following sources and custodians:_____.

This agreement will not limit the parties' discovery if ADR/mediation is unsuccessful. However, the parties will continue to explore appropriate and proportional phasing of discovery throughout the discovery process.

When a party propounds discovery requests pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 34, the parties agree to phase the production of ESI and the initial production will be from the following sources and custodians:_____.⁵

Following the initial production, the parties will continue to prioritize the order of subsequent productions.

8. ESI PROTECTED FROM DISCOVERY OR PUBLIC DISCLOSURE

a) Pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 502(b) and (d), the production of ESI which is privileged or is protected trial preparation material is not a waiver of privilege or protection from discovery in this case or in any other federal, state, arbitration or other proceeding so long as it was: [the parties may include their stipulated agreement, if any as to waiver of privilege, in this order or in a separate order as set forth in the Order implementing Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) ~~set forth in "Appendix LCvR 16.1.D" to the Local Rules~~].⁶

b) The parties may agree upon a "quick peek" process, without waiver of privilege or protection as trial preparation material, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5).

c) Communications involving trial counsel that post-date the filing of the complaint need not be placed on a privilege log.

⁵ A phased or iterative approach may be used to conduct the ESI (e.g., by issue, timeframe, custodians, databases, issue, liability, or damages).

⁶ This Paragraph 8 can be modified to limit (or entirely eliminate) the situations in which a producing party (or non-party) could be found to have failed to take (i) reasonable steps to prevent the disclosure of privileged or trial preparation material ESI, and/or (ii) prompt and reasonable steps to rectify this error, as provided under Fed. R. Civ. P. 502(b)(2)-(3). This paragraph can also be modified to address different types of produced materials to different standards than those outlined in Fed. R. Evid. 502(b).

d) Communications may be identified on a privilege log by category, rather than individually, if agreed upon by the parties or ordered by the Court.

e) The parties have/have not agreed to use the Form Inadvertent Production Provision of LCvR 16-4.D (The Clawback Agreement), and its terms are incorporated herein.

f) The parties have/have not agreed to use the Form Protective Order ~~(add-~~ hyperlink) (App. LPR 2.2) for protection of Confidential Information, such as trade secrets, and its terms are incorporated herein.

9. MODIFICATION

This Stipulated Order may be modified by a Stipulated Order of the parties or by the Court for good cause shown.

CHECKLIST FOR RULE 26(f) MEET AND CONFER
REGARDING ELECTRONICALLY STORED INFORMATION

In cases where electronically stored information will be exchanged between the parties, the Court encourages the parties to engage in on-going meet and confer discussions and use the following Checklist to guide those discussions. These discussions should be framed in the context of the specific claims and defenses involved. The usefulness of particular topics on the checklist, and the timing of discussion about these topics, may depend on the nature and complexity of the matter. Parties may obtain discovery of such materials, and on such terms, as permitted by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Local Rules of Court, and the applicable Orders of Court.

I. Preservation

- ☐ The ranges of creation, last modified, last accessed, or receipt dates for any known ESI to be preserved.
- ☐ The description of data from sources that are not reasonably accessible and that will not be reviewed for responsiveness or produced, but that will be preserved pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(2)(B).
- ☐ The description of data (including source and volume) from sources that (a) the party believes could contain relevant information but (b) has determined, under the proportionality factors, should not be preserved.
- ☐ Whether or not to continue any interdiction of any document destruction program, such as ongoing erasures of e-mails, voicemails, and other electronically-recorded material and/or any ongoing preservation requirements (i.e., “evergreen”).
- ☐ The names and/or general job titles or descriptions of custodians for whom ESI will be preserved (e.g., “HR head,” “scientist,” “marketing manager,” etc.).
- ☐ The number of custodians for whom ESI will be preserved.
- ☐ The list of systems, if any, that contain ESI not associated with individual custodians and that will be preserved, such as enterprise databases, legacy data, and human resource records.
- ☐ Any disputes related to scope or manner of preservation.
- ☐ Any non-party to consult regarding ESI, including entities over which a party has control.

II. Resource Person

- ☐ The identity of each party’s e-discovery resource person(s).

III. Informal Discovery About Locations of Data and Types of Systems

- ☐ Identification of systems from which discovery will be prioritized (e.g., email, structured databases, database types, and unstructured data).
- ☐ Description of systems in which potentially discoverable information is stored.
- ☐ Location of systems in which potentially discoverable information is stored.

- ☐ How potentially discoverable information is stored.
- ☐ How discoverable information can be collected from systems and media in which it is stored.
- ☐ Whether there are known relevant file paths or data locations.

IV. Proportionality and Costs

- ☐ The amount and nature of the claims being made by either party.
- ☐ The nature and scope of burdens associated with the proposed preservation and discovery of ESI.
- ☐ The likely benefit of the proposed discovery.
- ☐ Costs that the parties will share to reduce overall discovery expenses, such as the use of a common electronic discovery vendor or a shared document repository, or other cost-saving measures.
- ☐ Limits on the scope of preservation or other cost-saving measures.
- ☐ Whether there is potentially discoverable ESI that will not be preserved consistent with proportionality concerns.

V. Search

- ☐ The search method(s), including specific words or phrases or other methodology (cluster technology/predictive coding), that will be used to identify discoverable ESI and filter out ESI that is not subject to discovery.
- ☐ The quality control method(s) the producing party will use to evaluate whether a production is missing relevant ESI or contains substantial amounts of irrelevant ESI.

VI. Phasing

- ☐ Whether it is appropriate to conduct discovery of ESI in a phased or iterative approach (e.g., by issue, timeframe, custodians, databases, liability v. damages):
- ☐ Sources of ESI most likely to contain discoverable information and that will be included in the first phases of Fed. R. Civ. P. 34 document discovery. (i.e., known relevant file paths, email between specific parties during a given period of time).
- ☐ Sources of ESI less likely to contain discoverable information from which discovery will be postponed or avoided.
- ☐ Custodians (by name or role) most likely to have discoverable information and whose ESI will be included in the first phases of document discovery.
- ☐ Custodians (by name or role) less likely to have discoverable information and from whom discovery of ESI will be postponed or avoided.
- ☐ The time period during which discoverable information was most likely to have been created or received.
- ☐ The issues that are relevant to any party's claim or defense.

VII. Production

- ☐ The formats in which structured ESI (database, collaboration sites, etc.) will be produced.
- ☐ The formats in which unstructured ESI (email, presentations, word processing, etc.) will be produced.
- ☐ The extent, if any, to which metadata will be produced and the fields of metadata to be produced.

- ☐ The production format(s) that ensure(s) that any inherent searchability of ESI is not degraded when produced.

VIII. Privilege

- ☐ How any production of privileged information or trial preparation material will be handled.
- ☐ Whether the parties can agree upon alternative ways to identify documents withheld on the grounds of privilege or protection of trial preparation material to reduce the burdens of such identification.
- ☐ Whether the parties will enter into a Fed. R. Evid. 502(d) Stipulation and Order that addresses inadvertent or agreed production, and if so, the form and content of such Order.

IX. E-Discovery Special Masters and/or E-Mediators

- ☐ Would it be helpful to the parties for the Court to appoint an E-Discovery Special Master and/or E-Mediator? For further information, see ~~this~~ Court's ~~official~~ website. ~~at <http://www.pawd.uscourts.gov/ed-information>.~~

X. Expedited or Limited Discovery

- ☐ Are the parties willing to engage in limited discovery or an expedited discovery schedule? _____

United States District Court
Western District of Pennsylvania

GUIDELINES FOR THE DISCOVERY OF ELECTRONICALLY STORED INFORMATION

GENERAL GUIDELINES

Guideline 1.01 (Purpose)

Discovery often now includes the review and production of electronic information. The discovery of electronically stored information “ESI” provides many benefits such as the ability to search, organize, and target the ESI using the text and associated data. At the same time, the Court is aware that the discovery of ESI is a potential source of cost, burden, and delay. These Guidelines should assist the parties as they engage in electronic discovery. The purpose of these Guidelines is to encourage reasonable electronic discovery with the goal of limiting the cost, burden and time spent, while ensuring that information subject to discovery is preserved and produced to allow for fair adjudication of the merits. At all times, the discovery of ESI should be handled consistently with Fed. R. Civ. P. 1 to “secure the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of every action and proceeding.”

These Guidelines also promote, when ripe, the early resolution of disputes regarding the discovery of ESI without Court intervention. These guidelines are a supplement to LCvR 26.2.

Guideline 1.02 (Cooperation)

The Court expects cooperation on issues relating to the preservation, collection, search, review, and production of ESI. The Court notes that an attorney’s representation of a client is not compromised by conducting discovery in a cooperative manner. Cooperation in reasonably limiting ESI discovery requests on the one hand, and in reasonably responding to ESI discovery requests on the other hand, tends to reduce litigation costs and delay. The Court emphasizes the particular importance of cooperative exchanges of information at the earliest possible stage of discovery, including during the parties’ Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f) conference.

Guideline 1.03 (Discovery Proportionality)

The proportionality standard set forth in Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(1) and 26(g)(1)(B)(iii) should be applied to the discovery plan and its elements, including the preservation, collection, search, review, and production of ESI between parties.¹ To assure reasonableness and proportionality in discovery, parties should consider factors that include the importance of the issues at stake in the litigation, the burden or expense of the proposed discovery compared to its likely benefit, the amount in controversy, the parties’ resources, the parties’ relative access to relevant information, and the importance of the discovery in adjudicating the merits of the case. To further the application of the proportionality standard, discovery requests for production of ESI and related responses should be reasonably targeted, clear, and as specific as practicable.

ESI DISCOVERY GUIDELINES

Guideline 2.01 (Preservation)

- (a) At the outset of a case, or sooner if feasible, counsel for the parties should discuss preservation. Such discussions should continue to occur periodically as the case and issues evolve.
- (b) In determining what ESI to preserve, parties should apply the proportionality standard referenced in Guideline 1.03. The parties should strive to define a scope of preservation that is proportionate and reasonable and not disproportionately broad, expensive, or burdensome.
- (c) The Parties should be directed in their discussions concerning preservation by the Checklist for Rule 26(f) Meet and Confer Regarding Electronically Stored Information ~~set forth in "Appendix LCvR 26.2.C-CHECKLIST" to the Local Rules.~~ At the direction of the Court, or at the request of a party or the parties, a Court Order concerning preservation may be submitted for Court approval. ~~The, with the~~ Stipulated Order re: Discovery of Electronically Stored Information for Standard Litigation ~~set forth in "Appendix LCvR 26.2.E-Model Order" to the Local Rules~~ providing a framework for applicable provisions.

Guideline 2.02 (Rule 26(f) Meet and Confer)

At the required Rule 26(f) meet and confer conference, when a case involves electronic discovery, the topics that the parties should consider discussing include: 1) preservation; 2) systems that contain discoverable ESI; 3) search and production; 4) phasing of discovery; 5) protective orders (including application of LCvR 16.4.D and Fed. R. Evid. 502); and 6) opportunities to reduce costs and increase efficiency. In order to be meaningful, the meet and confer should involve direct communications between counsel (preferably, in person and/or by telephone), and be as sufficiently detailed on these topics as is appropriate in light of the specific claims and defenses at issue in the case. The topics to discuss include those set forth in Question 11 of the Rule 26(f) ~~R~~Report ~~set forth in "Appendix LCvR 16.1.A" to the Local Rules~~ and Question 13 of the Rule 26(f) ~~r~~Report for Class Actions ~~set forth in "Appendix LCvR 23.E" to the Local Rules~~, as applicable. In addition, some or all of the details set forth in LCvR 26.2 and the Checklist for Rule 26(f) Meet and Confer Regarding Electronically Stored Information ~~set forth in "Appendix LCvR 26.2.C-CHECKLIST" to the Local Rules~~ may be useful to discuss, especially in cases where the discovery of ESI is likely to be a significant cost or burden. The Court encourages the parties to address any agreements or disagreements related to the above matters in the joint case management statement required by LCvR 26.2. At the direction of the Court, the parties may be required to submit a draft of a Stipulated Order re: Discovery of Electronically Stored Information for Standard Litigation ~~such as the model Order set forth in "Appendix LCvR 26.2.E-MODEL ORDER" to the Local Rules.~~

Guideline 2.03 (Informal Discovery Regarding ESI)

Consistent with Guideline 1.02, the Court strongly encourages an informal discussion about the discovery of ESI (rather than deposition) at the earliest reasonable stage of the discovery process. Counsel, or others knowledgeable about the parties' electronic systems, including how potentially relevant data is stored and retrieved, should be involved or made available as necessary. Such a discussion will help the parties be more efficient in framing and responding to ESI discovery issues, reduce costs, and assist the parties and the Court in the event of a dispute involving ESI issues.

Guideline 2.04 (Disputes Regarding ESI Issues)

Disputes regarding ESI that counsel for the parties are unable to resolve shall be presented to the Court at the earliest possible opportunity, such as at the initial Case Management Conference. The Court may require additional meet and confer discussions, if appropriate. The Court may appoint and/or the Parties may seek the appointment of an E-Discovery Special Master or E-Discovery Mediator (~~<http://www.pawd.uscourts.gov/ed-information>~~) to assist the Court in resolving ESI disputes.

EDUCATION GUIDELINES

Guideline 3.01 (Judicial Expectations of Counsel)

It is expected that counsel for the parties, including all counsel who have appeared, as well as all others responsible for making representations to the Court or opposing counsel (whether or not they make an appearance), will be familiar with the following in each litigation matter:

- (a) The electronic discovery provisions of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, including Rules 26, 33, 34, 37, and 45, and Fed. R. Evid. 502 (including applicable Advisory Committee Reports); and
- (b) LCvR 26.2, these Guidelines, and this Court's "~~Checklist for Rule 26(f) Meet and Confer Regarding ESI~~" ~~set forth in "Appendix LCvR 26.2 CHECKLIST"~~ and "~~Stipulated E-Discovery Order for Standard Litigation~~" ~~set forth in "Appendix LCvR 26.2-E MODEL ORDER"~~ to the Local Rules.
