ORDER ADOPTING FORMS OF STANDARD AND SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION AND SUPERVISED RELEASE

AND NOW, this 20th day of November, 2023;

WHEREAS the Court is required to impose upon a defendant sentenced to a term of probation or supervised release the mandatory conditions of supervision set forth in 18 U.S.C. §§ 3563(a) (for probation) and 3583(d) (for supervised release);

WHEREAS the Court may impose upon a defendant sentenced to a term of probation or supervised release discretionary conditions, e.g., “Standard Conditions” or “Special Conditions,” to the extent that such conditions are reasonably related to the relevant factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), involve only such deprivations of liberty or property as are reasonably necessary for the purposes indicated in § 3553(a)(2), and are consistent with any pertinent policy statements issued by the Sentencing Commission, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3563(b) and 3583(d);

WHEREAS the Standard Conditions set forth in Exhibit A to this Order, which were approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States Courts, are basic behavioral expectations for the defendant and minimum tools required by probation officers to adequately monitor the conduct of all defendants under supervision;

WHEREAS the form of Special Conditions set forth in Exhibit B to this Order provides for additional sanctions, restrictions, correctional interventions, or monitoring tools as necessary to achieve the purposes of sentencing in the individual case when deemed appropriate for imposition by the sentencing judge; and

WHEREAS the Administrative Office of the United States Courts Probation and Pretrial Services Office has recommended that each Court adopt the Standard Conditions of probation and supervised release set forth in Exhibit A to this Order and fashion Special Conditions that comply with applicable laws,<sup>1</sup>

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Standard Conditions set forth in Exhibit A to this Order are adopted by the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania as the Standard Conditions of probation and supervised release in this Court; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Special Conditions set forth in Exhibit B to this Order are adopted by the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania as the form of such Special Conditions of probation and supervised release in this Court; and

<sup>1</sup> In September 2016, the Judicial Conference of the United States Courts approved the Standard Conditions set forth in Exhibit A to this Order and the release of a report created by the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, Probation and Pretrial Services Office, entitled “Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions” (the “Overview”). Judicial Conference of the United States, Report of the Proceedings of the Judicial Conference of the United States, UNITED STATES COURTS, Sept. 2016, at 14-15, https://www.uscourts.gov/sites/default/files/2016-09\_0.pdf.

In the Overview, it is recommended that—to establish “[s]ome level of national uniformity...because approximately 20 percent of persons under supervisions were sentenced in districts other than the district of supervision”—each district court adopt the Standard Conditions of probation and supervised release set forth in Exhibit A to this Order. Administrative Office of the United States Courts Probation and Pretrial Services Office, Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, UNITED STATES COURTS, Nov. 2016, at 16, https://www.uscourts.gov/sites/default/files/overview\_of\_probation\_and\_supervised\_release\_conditions\_0.pdf. The Overview also recommends that each district “fashion special conditions that comport with circuit case law” and lists the Special Conditions that are contained in Exhibit B to this Order. Id. at 16 n.11, 42-93. The Overview addresses in detail the statutory authority, language, purpose, and method of implementation for each of the Standard Conditions listed in Exhibit A to this Order and each of the Special Conditions listed in Exhibit B to this Order. Id. at 16.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the forms of Standard and Special Conditions adopted by this Order are deemed to be the default forms of such Conditions in this Court, subject to the determination of the sentencing judge as to the imposition of any specific Condition in a given case.

FOR THE COURT:

MARK R. HORNAK

Chief United States District Judge

STANDARD CONDITIONS

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.<sup>1</sup>
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

<sup>1</sup> This condition applies to defendants released to the community after a period of imprisonment. For probation cases, the condition is: "You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of the time you were sentenced, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame."

Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation of release. You must warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.

The probation officer may conduct a search under this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that you have violated a condition of supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.

16. Immigration-Related Requirements

You must [immediately report, continue to report, or surrender] to U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement and follow all their instructions and reporting requirements until any deportation proceedings are completed.

If you are ordered deported from the United States, you must remain outside the United States, unless legally authorized to re-enter. If you re-enter the United States, you must report to the nearest probation office within 72 hours after you return.

You must seek proper documentation from U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement authorizing you to work in the United States.

17. Restrictions on Viewing Sexually Explicit Materials

You must not view or possess any “visual depiction” (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256), including any photograph, film, video, picture, or computer or computer-generated image or picture, whether made or produced by electronic, mechanical, or other means, of “sexually explicit conduct” (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256).

You must not view or possess any “visual depiction” (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256) including any photograph, film, video, picture, or computer or computer-generated image or picture, whether made or produced by electronic, mechanical, or other means, of “sexually explicit conduct” (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256), that would compromise your sex offense-specific treatment.

18. Sex Offense-Specific Assessment, Treatment, and Physiological Testing

You must participate in visual response testing as part of the required participation in a sex offense specific assessment and/or treatment.

19. Polygraph for Sex Offender Management

You must submit to periodic polygraph testing at the discretion of the probation officer as a means to ensure that you are in compliance with the requirements of your supervision or treatment program.

20. Computer and Internet Restrictions

You must not possess and/or use computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) or other electronic communications or data storage devices or media.

You must not access the Internet.

You must not access the Internet except for reasons approved in advance by the probation officer.

You must submit your computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) or other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, to a search. You must warn any other people who use these computers or devices capable of accessing the Internet that the devices may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. A probation officer may conduct a search pursuant to this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that there is a violation of a condition of supervision and that the computer or device contains evidence of this violation. Any search will be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.

You must allow the probation officer to install computer monitoring software on any computer (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) you use.

To ensure compliance with the computer monitoring condition, you must allow the probation officer to conduct initial and periodic unannounced searches of any computers (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1030(e)(1)) subject to computer monitoring. These searches shall be conducted for the purposes of determining whether the computer contains any prohibited data prior to installation of the monitoring software; to determine whether the monitoring software is functioning effectively after its installation; and to determine whether there have been attempts to circumvent the monitoring software after its installation. You must warn any other people who use these computers that the computers may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
