

A Celebration of Liberty and Justice for All

On June 1, 2018, the Court will host an all-day Celebration of Liberty and Justice for All. The Celebration includes four programs, led by the Judges of the Western District, reflecting on the Court's rich tradition of upholding the principles enumerated in our Constitution, in shaping jurisprudence in various areas of federal law, and in making our justice system accessible to all citizens. The four programs are:

- Reflections on the Western District of Pennsylvania
- Protectors of the Constitution: The Civil Liberties Cases
- Trials of the Century: Notorious Criminal Cases
- The District's Financial Courts: Bankruptcy and the Economy of Western PA

Senator Robert P. Casey, Jr. graciously has agreed to serve as the luncheon speaker. The Celebration will take place in the Joseph F. Weis, Jr. U.S. Courthouse, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. An application is pending for approval of (6) PA CLE credits. A reception will follow.

Friday, June 1, 2018
8:30 am – 5:00 pm.
